RENT IS REDUCED FOR 21 TENANTS

Commission Passes on 21 Reductions—Sixteen Others Amicably Settled.

The Rent Commission today handed down decisions reducing the rent of twenty-one tenants of houses in Washington, and in addition dismissed sixteen complaints filed with the Commission, upon the ground that the cases had been amicably settled. The case of the Columbia Pump and Well Company, 529 Twelfth street northwest, was decided in favor of the tenant. The John W. Thompson Company had served notice on the pump and well company to vacate the premises. The reason given by the commission was that the notice was legally insufficient.

The determinations handed down by the commission were:

Premises No. 114 Shepherd street northwest, occupied by John J. Flanagan; rent reduced from $75 to $50 per month.

Premises No. 210 O street northwest, occupied by William A. Bramhall; rent reduced from $60, furnished, to $37.50 per month, unfurnished, and $27.50 per month, unfurnished.

Premises No. 2426 North Capitol street northwest, occupied by John T. Riley; rent reduced from $65 to $42.50 per month.

Salvation Army Plans To Erect Men's Hotel Here in Near Future

Washington is to have a new men's hotel in the near future. The structure, which will be eight stories high, will be modern in every respect. The hotel will be built by the Salvation Army on the site of its industrial home, 115-21 Pennsylvania avenue northwest. A new building in the rear of the proposed hotel will be erected as an industrial home.

The building at Eighth and E streets northwest, which for many years was occupied by the Civil Service Commission, also will be demolished and used by the Salvation Army as a women's hotel.

Col. Richard E. Hois, who for many years has been in charge of the Atlantic Coast district of the Salvation Army, was in Washington Sunday to look over the hotel site and consult with local Salvation Army officials regarding a site for the hostess house which the Salvation Army plans to maintain in Washington for friends and relatives of soldiers buried in Arlington.

Next month Major John G. McGee, in charge of the industrial home in Philadelphia, will come to Washington to relieve Major Allan Neill, in charge of industrial and social work here, and Commandant Elmer Johnston, in charge of field work. Washington heretofore has been attached to Baltimore, Richmond and Norfolk.

Major McGee who is coming here in charge of the Salvation Army work is one of the best known officers of the army. He has developed the Philadelphia industrial home until today it is counted as one of the industries of Philadelphia, employing hundreds of Philadelphia men, and reclaiming property that the Salvation Army thousands of dollars each year.

Judge Who Wed Couples Has Tables Turned and Becomes Groom Himself

Judge Robert E. Mattingly of the Municipal Court, who has listened to the "I will" of dozens of couples since assuming his judicial duties last spring, had the tables turned on himself yesterday.

Judge Mattingly stood before his colleague, Judge George C. Aukum, with Mrs. Gertrude Barranger, at the latter's home, 1219 K street northwest, and promised to love, honor and obey and be home every night at 10 o'clock.

A large number of friends of the pair witnessed the ceremony. Afterward Judge and Mrs. Mattingly left for a trip to the Thousand Islands.

ASSERT TREATIES HURT U. S. SHIPPING

American Builders Petition Public to Demand They Be Abrogated.

It was $390,000,000. For last year it was probably in excess of $700,000,000, while the custom receipts for the same period were less than a third of that sum. We are still suffering our competitors abroad, as we have been for a long, unbroken series of years. We will continue to do so until steps have been taken to keep our new merchant marine permanently upon the seas," the committee declares.

The British Board of Trade, by a survey of the shipping situation, "shows unmistakably the value of an adequate merchant marine in maintaining the prosperity of a country, and it indicates how the lack of such a trade fleet has gone far to offset the visible balance of trade in America's favor, which was eroded through the material excess of our exports over imports," according to the version of the shipbuilders' committee.

GERMAN COMMERCE WITH U. S. INCREASES

New Shipping Arrangements Expected to Boost Present Figure Materially.

Approval of the plans for the "interchange of courtesies" and a working agreement between the Hamburg-American line and the American Ship and Commerce Corporation for trade between the United States ports and Germany will in a short period place Germany in its prewar position of trade with the United States, shipping men today declared.

During the last twelve months Germany has steadily increased its trade with the United States. It assumed the position of sixth largest purchaser of American-made commodities during the last fiscal year. During the month of June it stood fifth among European nations purchasing American goods.

For the fiscal year of 1920, ending June 30, commodities valued at $202,176,079 were exported to Germany. Countries of Europe taking goods of greater total value from American markets were: Great Britain, $2,151,336,000; France, $1,716,811,629; Italy, $398,065,795; Belgium, $317,012,088; Netherlands, $254,449,827.

Reports for the month of July will be made public during the next ten days by the Department of Commerce. Experts predict that Germany will increase both imports from and exports to the United States during that period. The opening of a through line with unlimited facilities will place Germany in a position where she can realize her prewar trade, those connected with the various trade organizations believe.

Much of the imports and exports of Germany now are shipped through other countries for the lack of direct communication.

Figures received here from official sources in Mexico indicate that Germany is exporting more goods to that country now than any country other than the United States.

COLORED SLAYER IS GIVEN REPRIEVE

Attorney Getting Respite Unaware President Had Refused Commutation.

Not having heard that President Wilson had refused to commute the death sentence of Frank Bowman, colored, convicted of killing Clarence J. Keefer, in Lord's Woods, in 1916, Assistant District Attorney Charles Arth went before Justice Hitz of the District Supreme Court, this morning and obtained postponement of Bowman's execution which had been scheduled at the District jail for tomorrow.

The court set September 22 as the date for Bowman's hanging.

The accused was present in court and was returned to the jail after receiving this brief respite. When Mr. Arth returned to his office he found there waiting for him a message from the Department of Justice informing him that President Wilson had refused to entertain the petition for clemency in the condemned man's case, and unless other means develop in the meantime to save Bowman's life he will pay the penalty of his crime September 22.

JUDGES ARE SELECTED FOR ROCKVILLE FAIR

ROCKVILLE, Md., Aug. 17.—Director of the Montgomery County Agricultural Society have selected the following to judge the various exhibits at the annual fair to be held here Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week:

Heavy draft horses, Edward Nicodemus, of Waynesboro, Pa., and Frank W. Misch, of Hagerstown; light draft and saddle horses, John O. Green, Washington; cattle, B. F. Jones, Montrose, Pa.; hogs and sheep, F. B. James, Waterford, Va.; farm products, M. Benson, Germantown, Md.; vegetables, Daniel Shenaker, Takoma Park; fruits, E. W. Scott, Rockville.

Dr. Ferdinand King, New York Physician and Medical Author, says:

"It is my opinion that in practically all cases of indigestion, constipation and falling strength and vitality are due to the deficiency of iron in the blood. I am convinced that there are thousands who, simply by taking Nuxatedron, will find relief from their indigestion, constipation, and falling strength and vitality, and will be able to do their work with vigor and health."

WHO LOOK AFTER THE WELFARE OF THE GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES?

The Government is carrying on a campaign of Americanization—a welfare campaign for new citizens.

When former Secretary Franklin K. Lane retired, he said: "There are a great many thousand people here (in Washington) to whom the Government has given no consideration excepting that they are its employees."

Every great business organization, every large employer of labor, has a welfare department—that is, all but one—the largest one—the Government.

Perhaps that's why in private business men and women are said to work with their employer and in the public business they work for the Government.

Americanization is co-operation. It's welfare work for and with those persons the Government is seeking to Americanize.

Why doesn't the Government begin at home and look after the welfare of its employees?

Behind the band on this cigar is the "perfect smoke"

Perfecto

And that "smoke" represents the product of a lifetime cigarmaking experience. For forty years I experimented with tobaccos before I found a combination good enough to put into ADLON—the cigar of perfection!

The band on an ADLON cigar means something. It isn't put on for decorative purposes. It is the identification mark of QUALITY. And it stands for a QUANTITY that cannot be duplicated in so-called Quality cigars that sell at higher prices.

The ADLON band on any of the five shapes of ADLON cigars is the ADLON bond. It represents my guarantee that you are getting in ADLON a mild Havana-filler-and-shade-grown-wrapper cigar, expertly blended of choicest tobacco, and filled with a rich flavor that is fragrant, smooth and satisfying.

I'll stake my reputation as a tobacco expert on your judgment of this cigar, because I know what goes into it. Before I perfected ADLON I made more than five hundred individual tests of curing processes and blending methods.

I experimented with only the finest tobaccos procurable. And when I finally had hit upon the combination I decided was good enough to put into the "cigar of my dreams," I offered the smoking public—ADLON.

Try the ADLON—the large-size Governor shape, for example. If you don't say it's the most remarkable smoke you ever enjoyed, I'll miss my guess.
